

EARLE R. WILCOX MEMORIAL NATIONAL AND INDIVIDUAL ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS

GENERAL RULES

(Established 12/19/86)

1. An individual may receive only one EARLE WILCOX MEMORIAL NATIONAL AWARD during his or her life time.
2. If an individual received an Individual achievement award, there is a waiting period of five (5) years before the same individual can be nominated for, and receive, a second achievement award.
3. An individual may be nominated for an Individual Award, a National Award, or both.
4. Nominators will be notified of the committee's decision.

SELECTING AN INDIVIDUAL:

Award recipients will be selected by the Intertribal Timber Council Awards Committee on the basis of the criteria listed at the end of the Nomination form (page 4). Generally, nominees should have:

1. Made significant professional contributions.
2. Motivated or inspired others to perform and exceed in the performance of their duties.
3. Demonstrated outstanding competence, innovation, or creativity.
4. Been instrumental in influencing forestry management.

NATIONAL AWARD:

There will be one nationwide award, the "EARLE WILCOX OUTSTANDING FORESTER OF THE YEAR" award. This award shall be presented to an individual who has made a significant nationwide contribution to the Indian Forestry Program. The award is a mounted, silver-plated, engraved cruiser axe.

INDIVIDUAL ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS:

Achievement awards shall be presented to individuals who have made outstanding contributions or special achievements to the Indian forestry program. Awards are engraved plaques and are distributed by geographic areas as follows:

EARLE WILCOX MEMORIAL NATIONAL AND INDIVIDUAL ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS

AWARD CRITERIA

The following criteria establish how the EARLE WILCOX MEMORIAL AWARD applications will be evaluated.

CATEGORY 1:

Weight Factor 2.0
(10 points maximum)
Recognition by

TRIBAL INVOLVEMENT

Involvement with Tribes and their membership is the foundation upon which successful programs or projects are successful over the long-term. Recognition by individuals of this factor and its utilization are the key to long-term success. Tribal involvement can take many forms. Be careful to recognize them all.

CATEGORY 2:

Weight Factor 2.5
(10 points maximum)

IMPROVEMENT OF INDIAN RESOURCES OR PROGRAMS

Normally this factor is self-evident. Many times individuals who have made contributions in this category have received little personal publicity. Be sure to look at the factors being judged as well as the individual.

CATEGORY 3:

Weight Factor 2.0
(10 points maximum)

INDIVIDUAL EFFORT

Describe the effort the individual has expended to improve management of Indian resources. Caution: in some cases an individual can be in the right place at the right time and receive the credit for something other individuals have created.

CATEGORY 4:

Weight Factor 0.8
(10 points maximum)

CAN BE USED AS MODEL

Whenever possible, the ability to duplicate the concept on other Indian forest resources is desirable, but not necessary. The adaptability of a concept to "on the ground" is of value.

CATEGORY 5:

Weight Factor 2.0
(10 points maximum)

TECHNICAL ACHIEVEMENT AND APPLICATION

Wherever possible we wish to encourage and reward professional developments and their practical application in the field. We will weigh the practical application as greatly as the technical development. It is our desire to recognize individuals who can get it done "back home."

CATEGORY 6:

Weight Factor 0.8
(10 points maximum)

OTHER GOVERNMENT AGENCIES OR FUNDS

Describe ways the individual has creatively secured new or under utilized funding sources to support resource management on Indian forest lands.

CATEGORY 7:

Weight Factor 0.9
(10 points maximum)

ORIGINALITY

New ideas are important to the development of Indian forest lands and can reflect on individual dedication and initiative.

CATEGORY 8:

Weight Factor 2.0
(10 points maximum)

REFERENCES

Submit, with this application, two letters of reference addressing the personal and professional contributions of the nominee.
