

TRUMAN D. PICARD SCHOLARSHIP FACTS & QUESTIONS FOR APPLYING

FOR NATIVE AMERICAN STUDENTS
IN NATURAL RESOURCE MAJORS

BACKGROUND

- First awarded in 1988 in honor of Truman Picard, Colville forester and member of ITC Board of Directors
- Enrolled tribal members pursuing natural resource degrees
- 542 recipients to date
- $1,097,000 awarded to date
- $2,500 for undergraduate and graduate students
- $2,000 high school students

ELIGIBILITY

- Must be an enrolled member of a Federally Recognized Tribe
- College students: Must be a natural resource major (examples: forestry, hydrology, wildlife & fisheries, natural resource management or environmental studies.)
- High school students: Must be enrolled in natural resource courses
- College seniors not eligible unless they are applying to graduate school
- All natural resources degrees accepted, but preference will be given to students whose degree or area of study directly involves management of Forest Resources.
- Award given in early summer and intended to support student for the following year

THE PROCESS

- Members of the ITC Education Committee will review applications
- Each reviewer grades applications on a 1-5 point basis for each of 5 categories (25 points total). Scores for all reviewers are added together and candidates ranked.
- Categories are: 1) Application letter 2) resume 3) academic merit 4) financial need 5) three letters of reference

REQUIRED MATERIALS-

I) LETTER OF APPLICATION

- This is required and is worth up to 5 points - it is a great opportunity to introduce yourself to the reviewers
- The letter of application must include: your name, permanent mailing address, email address, and phone number. It should be a maximum of two pages in length
- Successful applicants frequently talk not only about themselves, but their tribe and the applicant's relationship to the land, culture and how it relates to their field of study in natural resources
- Career goals and family are often also mentioned- tell the story of why you are in college and why you want assistance from an intertribal forestry group
- Discuss why you need the financial assistance and how you would use it

REQUIRED MATERIALS-

2) RESUME

- Worth up to 5 points
- There is no required “correct” format- just make it easy to read and well organized
- Highlight education and work experience. If you have natural resource work and/or volunteer experience, make sure you detail it
- If you don’t, no worries, list any work and volunteer experience
- Membership in clubs or groups, awards etc. are all worth mentioning

REQUIRED MATERIALS-

3) THREE LETTERS OF REFERENCE

- Three letters of reference required - worth in total up to 5 points
- Letters must be signed (digital & electronic signature accepted), dated, and on letterhead (or reference the organization that the person represents). General letters of reference are ok, but need to be less than 6 months old
- Think strategically about who you will ask and give them a bit of time. When possible, get a mix of academic and work references. Personal references (friends of the family, a pastor etc.) are also acceptable, but in general solid references from instructors and employers tend to carry the most weight
- Open sealed documents, if applicable
- Reference letters will not be accepted directly from references. They should be included in your final application delivery

4) PROOF OF TRIBAL ENROLLMENT

- This is not a graded category, but in order to have your application accepted by ITC you must prove that you are a member of a federally recognized tribe
- This can be as simple as photocopying the front and back of a tribal ID, providing a photo-copy of a CIB or other enrollment document

REQUIRED MATERIALS- 5)TRANSCRIPTS

- This is the major piece of evidence for the Academic merit (1-5 points) category
- Transcripts can be unofficial- you can print copies available to you through you College and include them in the packet
- If you have attended multiple institutions, it is always good to include all transcripts
- Provide proof of declared major and current class schedule

REQUIRED MATERIALS-
6) FREE APPLICATION FOR STUDENT AID
(FASFA)

- NOTE- ALL applicants must submit a FAFSA report to demonstrate need. You don't have to have "unmet need" in the FAFSA - just include it (reviewers rate financial need on a 1-5 scale)
- If it has not been completed, include last year's report

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

APPLICATION CHECKLIST

- Letter of Application
- Resume
- Reference letter #1 (on letterhead, signed and dated)
- Reference letter #2 (on letterhead, signed and dated)
- Reference letter #3 (on letterhead, signed and dated)
- Evidence of validated enrollment in a federally recognized tribe or Alaska Native Corporation
- Transcripts
- College acceptance letter (high school) or declared major & current class scheduled (college)
- FASFA student aid report
